Presidents Report

To all,

Hope that you all had an enjoyable week.

Firstly, I would like to thank all those members who helped out at the World Cup of Golf carparking. Unfortunately, the weather was not the best, but that did not stop the members from turning up and doing a good job. It was also great to have the volunteers from the Wurringga Scout Group as well supporting us over the four days.

Secondly it was good to see a great turnout last Tuesday at the combined meeting between our club and the Rotary Clubs of Huntingdale and Oakleigh with regards to the "Merger Briefing". The presentation by the merger committee was great and it was also

Rotary Four Way Test

"Of the things we think, say or do:

1. Is it the Truth?
2. Is it Fair to all concerned?
3. Will it build goodwill and better friendships?
4. Will it be beneficial to all concerned?"

good to hear Graham Richardson speak on his merger experience with his Rotary Club. There was some good discussion amongst the members in attendance and it has been decided that there will be two more meetings held at both the Huntingdale and Oakleigh locations to review the venues and have further discussions before the final decision.

This week our guest speaker is John Barnes who will speak on the RI Convention & Global Grant Reports

Yours in Rotary,
Jon

2018 World Cup of Golf

Hi Lesley,

On behalf of the Rotary Club of Huntingdale and the PGA, please pass on our thanks to all of your Club members who so ably assisted us with the parking at the World Cup of Golf. Despite some less than favourable weather conditions you did a great job and your support is greatly appreciated and enables us all to raise money for very needy causes/projects.

In particular I would like to thank you personally for your sterling efforts in rounding up the staff for the Public Car park– it was a pleasure to work with you all again. Once we receive payment from the event organisers, we will make payment to your club via EFT of $3,000

Regards
Doug Bowden

International Fellowship of Cricketing Rotarians Melbourne Festival

Sunday 20th to Friday 25th January 2019

The International Fellowship of Cricketing Rotarians (IFCR) is one of the most popular of all Rotary Fellowships with a membership now touching 1350.

Melbourne has the honour of hosting this festival from January 20 next year. We will follow in the footsteps of previous festivals in Christchurch (2017), Nottingham (2014), Vapi in India (2012), Durban (2010), Colombo (2007) and Hunter Valley (2004).

Registrations include 185 players from 9 countries and 85 non-players. Cricket games will be played at Caulfield Park and East Caulfield Reserve from Monday January 21 through to Friday January 25.

On Wednesday 23 there will be a game at the spiritual home of Australian IFCR at Strath Creek which is 70k from Melbourne.

A novel feature of this festival is that players will play in mixed teams. The spirit of cricket and the fellowship of Rotary will be assured across all competing countries.

The Opening Dinner at the MCG on Sunday night January 20 will have one of Australia's leading sports commentators as guest speaker. The Friday night Closing Dinner will feature leading cabaret performer, Marney McQueen.

All in all, it will be a great week of cricket, fun, entertainment and fellowship.

Joke of the Week

Farmer Frank had a chicken farm divided by a busy road. The traffic sped along and killed many of his chickens which were crossing the road.

The council helped by erecting a sign that there was a school crossing and asking the drivers to slow down.

The drivers ignored the sign, continuing to mow down his chickens.

Frank put up a sign of his own which had immediate results. The sign said: 'Nudist colony. Watch out for chicks.'

Rotary recognizes UK Prime Minister Theresa May with polio champion award

By Ryan Hyland

Rotary honored Theresa May, prime minister of the United Kingdom, with the Polio Eradication Champion Award for her leadership and political support toward ending polio.

Rotary International President Barry Rassin presented the prestigious award to Alistair Burt, the UK minister of state for international development and minister of state for the Middle East, at a roundtable discussion on polio eradication on 27 November in London, England.

Rassin told Burt, who accepted the award on May's behalf, that the UK has repeatedly demonstrated an unwavering commitment toward a polio-free world.

"Britain's leadership in making multiyear commitments in support of global polio eradication has been an example for other countries to follow," Rassin said. He added that flexible funding from the UK has given the Global Polio Eradication Initiative more resources to respond quickly to "dynamic needs."

Under May's leadership in 2017, the UK pledged about $130 million to the GPEI for 2017-19, bringing the country's cumulative support for polio eradication to $1.6 billion — second only to the United States.

May has also been a strong advocate for other countries in the G-20 and G-7 to maintain their financial and political support for a polio-free world, Rassin said.

Rotary established the Polio Eradication Champion Award in 1996 to recognize heads of state, health agency leaders, and others who have made significant contributions to ending polio. Past recipients include Canadian Prime Minister Justin Trudeau, Japanese Prime Minister Shinzo Abe, German Chancellor Angela Merkel, Nigerian President Muhammadu Buhari, and former UN Secretary-General Ban Ki-moon.
